

Agenda: Australian Dialogue on Bribery & Corruption - 3 May 2018

| Time | Session |
|-----------------|--|
| 9.15am | Registration |
| 9.30 – 9.40am | Welcome, Acknowledgement of Country and Opening - Rachel Nicolson, Director, GCNA |
| 9.40 – 10.15am | Keynote Speech: Perspectives from the US - Matthew Axelrod, Partner, Linklaters (former US Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General, Department of Justice) |
| 10.15 – 11am | Session 1: The Australian reforms – amendments to foreign bribery laws and DPAs Format: Panel - Anna Harmer, First Assistant Secretary, AGD - Mark McIntyre, Superintendent, Coordinator Anti-Corruption, Organised Crime, AFP - Jeldee Robertson, Principal Federal Prosecutor, Commercial, Financial and Corruption Group, CDPP - Facilitator: Rachel Nicolson |
| 11.00 – 11.20am | Morning Tea |
| 11.20 – 11.40am | DPAs in action: perspectives from the UK - Sir Edward Garnier QC, One Brick Court Chambers, UK |
| 11.40 – 1pm | Session 2: Self-Reporting, Cooperation and DPAs – perspectives from enforcement authorities and business Format: Panel - Caroline Cox, Group General Counsel, BHP - Rebecca Jenkin, Executive Manager, Group Investigations, CBA - Mark McIntyre, Superintendent, Coordinator Anti-Corruption, Organised Crime, AFP - Fiona Thompson, Practice Group Coordinator, Commercial, Financial and Corruption Group, CDPP - Anna Harmer, First Assistant Secretary, AGD - Mark Pangbourne, Senior Specialist, Corporations & Corporate Governance Enforcement, ASIC - Facilitators: Rachel Nicolson & Chris Kerrigan |
| 1 – 2pm | Lunch |
| 2.00 – 3.30pm | Session 3: What will make guidance on adequate procedures effective? Format: Workshop |
| 3.30 – 3.45pm | Wrap-up, next steps and close - Rachel Nicolson, Director, GCNA - Cate Harris, Acting Executive Director, GCNA |

The Dialogue will be held under Chatham House Rules

Timing and location

The Dialogue will be held on 3 May 2018 at Allens: Level 37, 101 Collins Street, Melbourne