

Global Compact Network Australia: 2020 Membership Benefits - Subsidiaries

The UN Global Compact now recognises any subsidiary as a participating company of the UN Global Compact – without duplicating the parent company’s annual financial contribution – as long as the following criteria are met. The new UN Global Compact Subsidiary Policy is available here.

- The parent company is an active Participant or Signatory of the UN Global Compact.
- The subsidiary becomes actively engaged with the Global Compact Network Australia. By:
 - Submitting an application to join the UN Global Compact: www.unglobalcompact.org/participation/join/application/business.
 - Aligning your tier to that of your parent company. You can search for the parent company’s tier here
 - Completing the Global Compact Network Australia membership form (an ASIC requirement) and returning it to us: Secretariat@UNGlobalCompact.org.au
- Paying the local subsidiary fee (outlined below).
